

NEWS RELEASE*Comdisco Announces Dismissal of Litigation

Rosemont, IL- October 29, 2009 - Comdisco Holding Company, Inc. (OTC: CDCO.OB) (“Comdisco”) announced today that the pending litigation against certain of the former directors and officers of Comdisco, Inc., Collins et. al. v. Pontikes et. al., Case no. 2006 L 1006 in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, was voluntarily dismissed with prejudice by the judge on October 28, 2009 pursuant to a Stipulation and Agreed Order of Voluntary Dismissal With Prejudice. The litigation was reported in Comdisco’s Form 10-Q and Form 10-K filings as the “SIP Joinder Action”. The nominal settlement amount was paid by the former Comdisco, Inc.’s directors and officers insurance policy coverage.

About Comdisco

Comdisco emerged from chapter 11 bankruptcy proceedings on August 12, 2002. The purpose of reorganized Comdisco is to sell, collect or otherwise reduce to money in an orderly manner the remaining assets of the corporation. Pursuant to Comdisco’s plan of reorganization (the “Plan”) and restrictions contained in its certificate of incorporation, Comdisco is specifically prohibited from engaging in any business activities inconsistent with its limited business purpose. Accordingly, within the next few years, it is anticipated that Comdisco will have reduced all of its assets to cash and made distributions of all available cash to holders of its common stock and contingent distribution rights in the manner and priorities set forth in the Plan. At that point, the company will cease operations. The company filed on August 12, 2004 a Certificate of Dissolution with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware to formally extinguish Comdisco Holding Company, Inc.’s corporate existence with the State of Delaware except for the purpose of completing the wind-down contemplated by the Plan.
